Councillors to vote on precept

AXMINSTER Town Council's element of council tax precept for the coming financial year could top £137,000 – a moderate increase compared to one year ago.

Council members were meeting on Monday evening to set the precept as Pulman's View went to press.

The council's finance and general purposes committee had recommended full council to set a precept of £137,083 – the current financial year's precept being £135,510.

In 2010-11 the town council's precept stood at £88,730 – but jumped to £110,750 for 2011-12, primarily because of costs relating to the Old Courthouse.

It then jumped to the current £135,510 a year ago, with most of that increase being attributed to the budget for special projects, which included £15,000 for the Guildhall.

Pub policing issues

QUESTIONS over the policing of Axminster were asked at last night's town council meeting following a number of incidents at local pubs over the Christmas period.

Attention was drawn to a report of the Axe Valley Local Action Group when police reported that "some issues" had been caused by two public houses in town not having door staff as required by their licences.

Bid to retain more surgery at hospital

A COMPROMISE may be reached to keep more day case surgery than originally planned at Axminster Community Hospital.

Health bosses met early this year and are in the process of formulating a proposal that will be taken to what is known as an NHS locality board at the end of this month.

By Anders Larsson

The hospital is managed by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, but day case surgery is commissioned by NHS Devon and provided by Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&E).

Fears were expressed last month by local GPs that the number of operations carried out could be reduced.

They "deplored the withdrawal of services" but NHS Devon said no decision had been made – but confirmed the day case unit in Axminster was deemed under-used and "therefore expensive to run" by the RD&E trust.

Commissioning Groups

In short, primary care trusts are in the process of being abolished and replaced by clinical commissioning groups.

Devon is split into geographical clinical commissioning groups, the local one being named Wakely Consortium.

Axminster GP Phil Taylor is its co-chairman, and he is also chairing the hospital's league of friends.

He issued an update on

■ AXMINSTER HOSPITAL: A compromise may be reached for more local operations

Thursday, January 10th, saying: "The Locality MD and I met the RD&E on Tuesday.

"There may be room for a compromise.

"We haven't convened the League of Friends whilst negotiations are continuing."

An NHS Devon

spokesperson confirmed negotiations were ongoing and said that those involved are looking at what services could be available in Axminster.

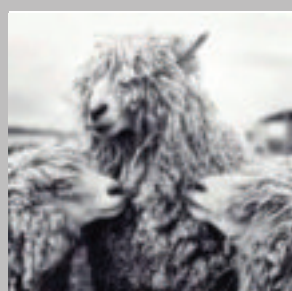

A proposal will be formulated and taken to the relevant locality board at the end of this month for discussion and decision

KILMINGTON

Village stores saved

AFTER nearly three years of trying to sell Hurfords Stores with its Post Office in Kilminster so that he could retire in the knowledge that those amenities remained in the village, David Lavender has finally succeeded.

Terry and Kim Rhodes, who came from Hampshire, are the new owners and they intend to continue the tradition of managing an independent store with the Post Office, relying on good support from the community.

From the editor's chair Hail the village shop!

THE village shop has long been recognised as the hub of any small rural community but has been under increasing pressure in recent years.

Many have fallen along the wayside, together with the village pub, and in some instances the village school, and an increasing number in this part of the world now rely on voluntary help for survival.

In Pulman's Country the village stores in Offwell, Dalwood and Thorncombe are run as community outlets on a voluntary basis and had it not been for those willing to give up a few hours every week to serve behind the counter, no doubt they would have followed hundreds of others up and down the country which are no longer operating, which, sadly, includes the little shop at Musbury.

Fortunately, Musbury Post Office was saved and moved to the Spar Shop at the garage.

Very often these shops are coupled with a village post office, which makes the loss even more keenly felt, especially for the elderly.

Even Colyton, which considers itself to be a small town rather than a village, is currently without a Post Office. (When I was a young reporter I once made the mistake of calling Colyton a village in front of Colyton grandee Donald Baker – but I only did it once!)

The loss of the village shop has had a devastating affect on some communities in Devon and there were fears prior to Christmas that Kilminster was about to lose Hurford Stores, which has been an essential part of Kilminster life for as long as anyone can remember.

David Hurford had spent three years trying to find a buyer in the most difficult of trading conditions since the last war. There must have been times when he thought he would have to close down the shop which had been the beating heart of his home village for generations.

David knew exactly how much Hurford Stores meant to Kilminster and what a gaping whole it would leave in community life if he had shut the doors for good.

Fortunately, before Christmas, along came Terry and Kim Rhodes, from Hampshire, to take on the business, including the Post Office, and learn the ropes from David over the busy festive period.

As you can imagine, they have received a warm welcome from the locals and are now well ensconced, much to the delight of villagers who have breathed a huge sigh of relief that the name of "Hurford Stores" still hangs proud above the shop door and will continue to be the hub of village life.

SEATON

Another drop in local crime figures

POLICE in Seaton have revealed that crime figures for Seaton and its parishes for 2012 are once again considerably lower than average.

During 2012, Seaton had 271 reported crimes, compared to an average of 314 for the same period over the last nine years.

The crime total for 2012 is the third lowest total since 2004 and Acting Sergeant, Stephen Paynter was very pleased with the continued low level of crime in Seaton.

He said: "We have had another good year in Seaton and whilst figures for the town are higher than last year, they are still considerably lower than the average over the last nine years."

In a rural review of Seaton, crime was also at an all time low with the lowest ever-yearly recorded crime since 2004 across the town's rural parishes.

In Axmouth, despite an increase in crime of 14 per cent in comparison to 2011, only 16 crimes were reported. Similarly in Beer, only 28 crimes were reported which is the second lowest yearly crime total since 2004.

Commenting on Seaton's rural review, a spokesperson for the Seaton Neighbourhood team said: "Looking at all the parishes combined, 2012 saw 122 reported crimes which is the lowest total since at least 2004 and significantly lower (49 per cent) than the peak in 2004."

COLYTON

Councillor resigns

COLYTON parish councillor Alan Davis has handed in his resignation due to deteriorating health.

Mr Davis is currently suffering from leukaemia and his resignation was expected to be officially announced at last night's parish council meeting (Monday). He has served on the authority for seven years.

The following statement was sent to the parish clerk, Liz Berry, and the Pulman's View: "You will appreciate my health is not improving and unfortunately I am no longer able to attend parish council meetings even with the access improvement for the less able.

"Please convey my resignation to the council at their next meeting."

Councillors were expected to discuss the deadline for calling a by-election at last night's meeting having formally accepted Mr Davis' resignation.

SIDMOUTH

Babes brave seas for charity swim

LOCAL open water swimmers braved Sidmouth's chilly seas to encourage others across the county to take part in a 4km swim to boost two local charities.

Organised by the independent Sidmouth Lifeboat and the Chestnut Appeal for Prostate Cancer, an anticipated 100 swimmers will take to Sidmouth's shores on Sunday, June 16th, for the sponsored swim to Ladram Bay.

Local trio of swimming mums, Kate Jackson, Kathy Anzuino and Jo Billing, also known as the East Devon Babes, entered the water on Friday alongside David Squires of the Chestnut Appeal to launch the event.

Representatives of Sidmouth Lifeboat, Ladram Bay Holiday Park and the town's Open Water Swimmers group also joined the four swimmers to show their support for the event.

The swim from Sidmouth to Ladram Bay aims to raise much-needed funds and awareness for the two charities, encouraging swimmers from across the county to take the plunge and help the worthy causes.

HONITON

Bungalow health unit to re-open

PLANS for the reopening of The Bungalow in Honiton has been signed off and it is hoped the facility will be back in use at the end of summer, according to Devon Partnership NHS Trust.

The news was conveyed after a recent meeting of Honiton Older People's Mental Health Stakeholder Group.

Devon Partnership NHS Trust's Donna Bell, who manages community mental health services for older people in Exeter, East and Mid Devon, said: "The plans for the site have now been signed off, the finances have been agreed and work at the site should commence in the near future.

"We are hoping that the redevelopment of The Bungalow will be completed by the end of the summer. When it is up-and-running, the site will provide a range of outpatient services, clinics, therapeutic programmes and educational groups for local people.

"It will also be the work-base for mental health staff in East Devon supporting both adults and older people, and this means that staff currently based at Churchill House in Honiton will relocate there.

"In terms of older people with mental health needs, those in the very early stages of dementia are likely to be seen for an initial assessment and diagnosis at the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&E).

"Here, they will undergo a comprehensive assessment of their physical and mental health, including any diagnostic tests that are necessary, such as brain scans."

"Follow-up care, ongoing support, advice, education and group activity for people with dementia and a wide variety of other mental health problems will be provided at The Bungalow for many people, but others will continue to receive support in their own homes, as they do now."

◆ Honiton Older People's Mental Health Stakeholder Group includes representatives from health and social care agencies, local GP practice, carers, community representatives and the voluntary sector. The local lay representatives are Val Royle, Heather Penwarden, Vernon Whitlock, Alf Boom and Elli Pang.

East Devon youngsters reach gold

YOUNG people from East Devon have been honoured for their contribution to the Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award scheme.

A total of 39 youngsters from Devon completed their Gold awards and were presented with their awards by Sir John Evans, Deputy Lord-Lieutenant of Devon, at a ceremony at County Hall in Exeter on Saturday, January 5th.

They included Colyton Grammar School student Elizabeth Chamberlain-Keen, Imogen Dinham-Price from Sidmouth College and Samuel Scott-Perry and Thomas Sinclair, both from Honiton.

Attending the ceremony was Helen Jenny MBE, chairman of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award scheme in Devon; Devon County Council's head of child and adult protection, Rory McCallum; and Cabinet Member with responsibility for the youth service, Councillor Stuart Barker.

The Duck of Edinburgh is a personal development programme undertaken as part of leisure time activities. It challenges young people between the ages of 14 and 25 to serve others, acquire new skills, experience adventure, and make new friends - young and old. There are currently 7,800 young people in Devon registered.

Participants, regardless of their economic circumstances, ability or disability, are encouraged to develop existing interests or try something new. Whatever they choose to do for their programme, they can find enjoyment, excitement and satisfaction. The scheme is run under a licence held by Devon County Council and is delivered through more than 70 groups in Devon including schools, colleges, youth clubs and voluntary organisations.

The scheme is not competitive, and anyone with the necessary perseverance, enterprise and effort can gain an award. Young people are encouraged to choose activities which suit their particular interest and talents, challenge their perceptions and which are appropriate to the environment in which they live.

For adults, the Duke of Edinburgh provides an opportunity to help by sharing their skills and experience with young people. This can lead to better understanding between the young and old, and strengthen co-operation within the community.

The Gold Award can take a number of years to achieve, the average being around two. Each participant has to cover five different areas of achievement - a volunteering project, skills, physical recreation, expedition and residential experience.

County Councillor Stuart Barker said: "Congratulations to these remarkable young people for achieving this fantastic accolade."

"I am delighted that so many young people from across Devon have been involved in this superb scheme. The personal skills they will be invaluable as they move forward to further education, employment and training, as well as helping local communities, charities and voluntary groups."

Power Tools role in TV glider model

AXMINSTER Power Tools' staff were consulted when the BBC2 series Toy Stories, fronted by Top Gear presenter James May, built a ten feet glider to fly from a hot air balloon over the English Channel.

Before attempting to fly the glider James talked to Axminster Skill Centre engineering tutor, Tom Galvin, about some of the tools the team was planning to use.

The programme, originally aired on Sunday, December 22nd 2012 on BBC2 included James's endeavours to gain permission from the French authorities to fly the glider across the English Channel, building and testing of the prototype glider at Dunkswell Airfield, near Honiton, and footage of flights from Ilfracombe.

The entertaining programme, entitled James May's Toy Stories Flight Club, can be found on BBC iPlayer.

Butchers hand out donations

By Laura Goldsbury Noy

THREE local organisations were given a much-needed boost when Complete Meats of Axminster handed out three £50 cheques.

Representatives from the Hawkchurch Church Tower Fund, Axminster Football Club and Axminster's Tourist Information Centre arrived at the town's Complete Meats store on Tuesday of last week where they were presented with the donations.

Representing the Hawkchurch Tower Fund was volunteer Neil Ransford who said: "We are very grateful for the £50 donation which will go towards our £40,000 goal to start vital restoration work on the village's church tower."

"It has taken us around 18 months to reach our total and we have had a tremendous amount of support from the local community. We hope to start work in the next coming week."

Co-ordinator for Axminster Tourist Information Centre, Jill Ruddick also thanked Complete Meats for the donation, which will continue to support the work of the centre which is run by Axminster Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

On receiving the cheque, she said: "The TIC is a non-funded centre so any money donated to us is much needed and keeps us open and running throughout the year."

"Thank you from all of us at the TIC as well as those from the Chamber of Commerce who have been supporting us and have ensured we have remained in the town to continue our services to the local community and vis-

Also receiving a donation was the chairman of Axminster Football Club, Ray Self, who said the money would go towards further developing the club's youth team structure.

Complete Meats, with outlets also in Honiton and Chard, hand out community funding in each area twice a year.

Groups and organisations are encouraged to apply for the grants throughout the year and three worthy candidates are selected out of a hat to benefit from the donations.

Good samaritan returns lost keys

AN Axminster woman is full of praise for the unknown saviour who found her car keys on Seaton beach and handed them to police.

Sharon Chatting lost her keys when walking her dogs and was almost resigned to paying £180 for a replacement set.

She visited the beach in Seaton during the first week of the new year, and said: "I took a walk along Seaton seafront with my four dogs in tow.

"In the process of 'picking up' I happened to loose my car keys. For the next few days the dogs had ample extra walks whilst I scoured the beach asking any poor unlikely day-tripper to help me look for them."

"What a surprise when an unknown good Samaritan posted them through the letter box at Honiton Police Station, with no details of who they were."

"Thank you to the kind person concerned. It saved me £180 in getting the keys replaced."

"Honiton Police deserve a mention as they made enquiries and personally delivered them back to me at my address."

Sharon admitted it wasn't the first time she had lost things when walking her dogs, and added: "Also thanks to the kind finder of my dog harness left on the fence for me to collect at Seaton Hole last month."

A taste of university life

Axe Valley students inspired by visit to Exeter

ALL 150 Year 9 students at Axe Valley Community College have experienced a taste of university life.

They travelled to University of Exeter on Wednesday of last week and Rebecca Levi, who runs the Axminster college's ASPIRE programme for gifted and talented students, said: "In year 9, the students are about to choose their GCSE options.

"These GCSE choices are important as they can affect what they do at A-level, degree level, as well as university choice.

"We want to give our students as much information as possible and support them early in the process, so that they feel prepared to make the right choices for themselves and their future careers."

The college has worked closely with the university for some time, including projects like the ASPIRE programme and the Extended Project Qualification (EPQ).

Rebecca added: "This is the first time that the whole of Year 9 visited the university.

"The intention of the day was to provide the students with an idea of what university life is like, the opportunity to interact with the Exeter University student ambassadors and staff - and be inspired to work hard to pursue a degree course, particularly those students who have the ability but had never considered university as an option.

"I was really pleased, from talking with a number of the student, to see that our students were indeed inspired by the day."

Theories of Child Development – and business?

Of the many and varied theories of the social and educational development of children, some of the most respected and enduring are those of Piaget and Vygotsky. Working in the 1920's Piaget was one of the first psychologists to make detailed studies of children and concluded that children actually think in a strikingly different way from adults, rather than merely being less competent thinkers. He believed that infants are born with basic materials and abilities for intellectual development. The infant then uses building blocks of knowledge to assimilate and then accommodate this new information. Vygotsky, writing in the early 1930s, placed more emphasis on the social influences that encourage cognitive development and the differences that a child can achieve independently and with the guidance and encouragement from a skilled partner or adviser. The contemporary educationalist, Hirsch, stresses the importance of the breadth of vocabulary and knowledge that a person possesses: similar to money as capital, the more knowledge and skill a person has, the more they can acquire.

For those of us with interactions with children or grandchildren it is fascinating to see how the various theories of development reflect our own experiences. Does this have any relevance for businesses? Well, growing and developing a business has certain elements in common with growing a child. Both need careful nurturing (not to mention hard work!) and can benefit and learn from the guidance and experience of others.

'Icing on the cake' for seafood restaurant

AWARD winning gastro pub, The Seafood Platter, in Beer, has been named one of the most sustainable fish restaurants in the UK by Fish2Fork.

The campaigning restaurant guide for people who want to eat fish sustainably, acts as an online resource for all who enjoy eating out and want to eat seafood, which has been caught ethically with a low impact on the sea.

Having already being recognised for their emphasis on local sustainable produce and high quality ingredients by bodies such as the Taste of the West, the manager of The Seafood Platter, Luke Hunt, described the recognition as 'the icing on the cake' for their restaurant.

The Seafood Platter received the highest Fish2Fork rating with four and a half blue stars and registered as the 15th best sustainable seafood restaurant out of 585 UK restaurants registered to the site.

Mr Hunt said: "It is a fantastic achievement for us to hear that people can see where we have gone on our journey, having only changed to our name to the Seafood Platter in July 2012.

"We are so pleased that the restaurant has been recognised as one that focuses on sustainable produce that comes from the local area, supporting local farmers and fishermen, reducing the global footprint and aiding the local economy.

"The Seafood Platter has a strong seafood menu and being situated in a fishing village right by the sea, it has always been important to us to deliver the best and highest quality seafood available, whilst ensuring the fish comes from a sustainable and local source.

"Being recognised with four and a half stars on Fish2Fork has been the icing on the cake and the Hunt family are all very proud of how far we have come as a business since opening in 1990."

A spokesperson for Fish2Fork added: "Congratulations to the Seafood Platter restaurant in Beer for winning our 4.5 blue fish rating.

"If all restaurants took the same approach as The Seafood Platter our seas would be in a much better state.

"We are impressed by the strong and responsible environmental stance taken by the owners and heartily congratulate them on achieving a 4.5 blue fish rating.

"They don't serve farmed fish, they stopped using cod 15 years ago, and only use day boat fish. Bass is line-caught and they serve a mix of less familiar species such as pollock, whiting and gurnard. The top-class shellfish include oysters, spider and brown crab, mussels, scallops and lobster.

"We are delighted to award The Seafood Platter a rating that places it among the most sustainable fish restaurants in Britain and Europe."

Work begins on new facilities for Seaton Tennis Club

MEMBERS of Seaton Tennis Club are delighted that, after being given a boost of £50,000 from Sport England, their new clubhouse is underway.

Following a gruelling six year quest for funding to allow the group to build an adequate space for their members, the Inspired Facilities Programme administered by Sport England in conjunction with the National Lottery gave the tennis club the £50,000 grant they need for a new clubhouse.

With more than 300 members, Seaton Tennis Club has until now had to share clubhouse facilities with the town's cricket club, but will now be creating their own on-site space at Court Lane.

Local MP, Neil Parish and a Sport England representative handed over the £50,000 cheque to representatives of the tennis club about six months ago and members are pleased that work has now begun to complete their new facilities.

Membership secretary Grayson Newton said: "Without the support of Sport England we would not have been able to start work on the build of the new clubhouse and we are very grateful to them for the grant which has enabled us to provide the new facilities.

"Alongside funding from the club reserves, we have been able to start work and look forward to our members being able to benefit from their new space."

Life member and long standing committee volunteer for Seaton Tennis Club, Dennis Coles was given the

Arts society impressed by artist... and her sitter

SEATON and District Arts Society members were pleased to be educated by well-known local artist Emma MacFadyen and her well-behaved sitter, Merlin, her dog.

With only the promise of a few dog-biscuits, Merlin, who is a grey four-way cross (Italian hunting dog / greyhound/poodle/deerhound) sat very still and waited to be drawn.

Emma started off on pale-grey paper using charcoal, smudging with her fingers as she went. This early work was just to get the general shape, including sorting out the foreshortening caused by Merlin's long front legs coming out towards the viewer.

She also softly indicated the eyes and then started to bring in her pastels. In all only four colours were used, plus the charcoal for extra emphasis.

However, since the colour of the paper complemented the subject, she was able to use flashes of paper showing through as highlights.

Merlin had a highly-textured coat, tending towards a poodleish curl, so finding his shape underneath was not all that easy.

However the use of pastels enabled Emma to either use a general softness or else quite a fine line with the same stick of colour. Interestingly quite a lot of mauve was used and also some dark blue to add richness to the black.

Emma commented that in order to draw animals it is necessary to be quite a quick drawer and also to be as flexible as possible to deal with any movement.

Society chairman, Anna Mason, thanked Emma and Merlin most warmly and said that Emma had had a difficult task in finding a structure under all the hairy coat!

She reminded members, of whom there were more than 50 in attendance of the Drawing Course she was holding in March and also of the next session when the society's president, Alan Cotton, is going to appraise members' work.

Great support for Axmouth Challenge run

LOCAL runners braved the chilly temperatures on Sunday for the annual Axmouth Challenge Run.

Organised by the Axe Valley Runners and the Axmouth Village Hall Management Committee, the Axmouth Challenge Run was the first race in the East Devon Community Race Series.

A total of 145 runners took part in the challenge, with 101 in the main 10-mile race, 28 running the shorter 5-mile route and 16 people in the one-mile fun run.

This year, there was a selection of new course routes for the runners to enjoy on Sunday morning, missing out the main roads and the golf course hill but adding more shorter steep hills, including a slippery field climb which covered the runners in mud.

Ian Ross from Honiton Running Club won the 1-mile junior run in 8:28 with AVR's Mia Bartlett the first girl, 4th overall in 10:20. Axe Valley Runners juniors also played a key part with Jacob Clode coming in second, Matt Thurgood running in third and youngsters, Max Bowskill, Peter Johns, Nancy McLoughlin, Stephen Johns and Jenny Webber coming in closely behind.

The 5-mile run was won by Henry Riddle from

by Laura Goldsbury Noy

Honiton Running Club in 39:45.

There was great success for the Axe Valley Runners in the main 10-mile event with AVR's Alex Todd winning in 1:00:02 and Hannah Bridger on a short sabbatical from uni first lady and 15th overall in 1:09:58.

Luke Reed had a great run finishing 5th in 1:06:00, as did James Gular 8th in 1:06:20. Phil Evergreen Bayliss won the over 60 category, 14th overall in 1:09:35 and Eleanor Wood was first lady over 55, 30th overall in 1:16:44.

Following the race, members of the village hall committee provided the runners with warming soup, rolls and homemade cakes.

Organiser, Richard Gush was overwhelmed by the support for the event and said: "We are all very pleased with the numbers who took part in the annual Axmouth Challenge Run."

"We only had around 40 that pre-registered for the event so we were delighted with the support on the day when around 100 people turned up to take part."

"The new route seemed to go down well and avoided the problems with using main roads, as well as getting more village areas involved.

"Without the help and support of the Axe Valley Runners we wouldn't be able to have this major fundraising event for our village hall so I would like to thank them for all their help."

"Thank you also to all the race marshalls, village volunteers, committee volunteers who served up refreshments and all others who contributed to the event and helped make it a success."

"Antisocial behaviour/alcohol related crime and disorder will also be targeted and the team will continue to closely monitor underage drinking, carrying out regular patrols in the town and surrounding area."

"We will also continue to work closely with other agencies and assist them in solving other problems in the area, including dog fouling and other dog related offences."

"The Seaton Neighbourhood Team remain committed to serving the community by being visible and we will endeavour to reduce crime further in the forthcoming year."

Community breakfast

CHILDREN and parents from Hawkchurch Primary School will be hosting a community breakfast on Saturday, January 19th in Hawkchurch Village Hall.

The hall will be open to the public for a farmhouse style breakfast from 9am until 11.30am.

Members of the school hope to raise funds for the Church Tower Fund and the village hall, as well as giving local people a chance to view plans and talk to the committee about the Hawkchurch Community Shop.

The event is being held as part of Farmhouse Breakfast Week, a nationwide annual celebration championing the importance of breakfast.

Talk on Burrow Farm Gardens

MUSBURY Garden Club welcomes back Mary Benger, who has grown and sculpted Burrow Farm Gardens over the last 50 years, for a talk on Monday, January 21st.

Mary started with the help of her four young children to clear the brambles away from an old roman clay pit that was deemed unsuitable for farming.

Today it is beautifully landscaped, extending to nearly 10 acres.

The talk will be held at Musbury Village Hall at 7.30pm. There will be a raffle and refreshments. Entry costs £2.50 or £1.50 for Musbury Garden Club members.

Dog stuck in badger set

FIREFIGHTERS were called to Yarcombe to release a dog stuck in a badger sett.

A unit from Honiton was despatched at about 11.50am on Saturday, December 8th and crews released the dog using digging equipment.

Pedallers enjoy route around Combpyne

A DOZEN Axe Valley Pedallers members took advantage of unexpected sunshine on Sunday, January 13th to visit the labyrinth of lanes around Combpyne.

Wrapped up against the low temperatures, the riders met as usual by the bike racks outside Seaton Tourist Information Centre and set off along the cycle track towards Colyford.

The route took them across the River Axe to Boshill before diving into the narrow lanes at Brucklands, where there was still plenty of water running in the streams and ditches, and along the lanes themselves from recent flooding.

Cpub member Rob Watson reported: "A sudden intake of breath was exchanged with the driver of a car on a blind bend, but other than this, a dog, and a single stationary horserider there was no traffic and the group soon made short work of the hill up to the village sign.

"Combpyne has the distinction of being the current home to the giant Axe Valley Pedallers bicycle, which found its way there after appearing at Seaton Carnival.

"The bike, which was ridden in the carnival by members of the group, and won the award for "best human-powered vehicle" is now somewhat battle scarred, but the club hopes to bring it back into use later this year.

"The group moved on up the hill to Rousdon and then it was downhill all the way to Axmouth, where Axe Valley Runners were encountered toiling their way up.

"Then it was home to Seaton along the estuary and on to the seafront."

Details of rides for 2013 are available online at axevalleypedallers.org.uk

Volunteers needed for open days at Shute Barton

THE National Trust is looking for volunteer tour guides and receptionists to work at Shute Barton, a medieval manor house near Axminster.

Shute Barton (pictured right) has recently been renovated and turned into a National Trust holiday cottage, but will be open to visitors four weekends a year for guided tours.

The open weekends this year are May 18th and 19th, June 15th and 16th, September 14th and 15th and October 12th and 13th.

Jane Dauncey, who has been a Shute guide for ten years, said: "Sharing the gems of Shute Barton with our visitors is both stimulating and a pleasure.

"When I started as a guide I had an interest in the National Trust and history but no knowledge, but with support this quickly changed.

"I would encourage anyone who is interested in people and history to consider joining the volunteer team and becoming a guide at Shute Barton."

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer, contact Kate Sheard on 01297 680507 or kate.sheard@nationaltrust.org.uk

Winter warming waves

DESPITE the days becoming chillier, swimming still provides one of the best forms of exercise for both you and your baby, and is just as perfect for cold winter days as it is for hot summer ones.

The main thing to consider when taking very young children swimming is that the water temperature needs to be cosy warm (32 degrees for babies under 12lbs or 12 weeks; 30 degrees for everyone else). And the good news is there's no minimum age to start your baby swimming; they don't need to have had any immunisations before they go.

'Just half an hour's swimming will provide your baby or toddler with a complete work out,' says Rowan Bradford who runs Water Babies classes across Devon and Somerset. 'They'll be exercising muscles they'd never even find on land! Swimming's great for enhancing their confidence and awareness, as well as helping to improve eating and sleeping patterns – a definite bonus!'

Whether swimming in winter or summer, a baby wetsuit is always a good idea – a toasty baby is going to be infinitely happier than a chilly one! Do make sure you put your baby in it at the start of the session; it's very easy to take it off if your baby gets too hot. However, if they start getting too cold, putting anything on them at that stage will do little to make them warmer, so it's good to be cautious from the start.

Once you're in the pool, keep your baby gently moving all the time: bouncing across the water, swinging them round, singing nursery rhymes as you go. You'll find they respond really positively, especially as they'll love sharing such special one-to-one time with you. However, if your baby's still very small, don't be surprised if they don't appear to be remotely interested in what you're doing at first, as there'll be a huge amount of other stimulating things attracting their attention!

'We see no drop in our classes during the winter months,' comments Rowan. 'In fact, many of our parents tell us that they love getting into a steaming hot pool with their baby, whilst the rain drips down the windows outside.'

However you take your baby swimming, at the end of every session, wrap them in a dry towel and place them somewhere safe whilst you get changed. By the time you're ready they'll be warm and dry, so getting them dressed will be a much easier and more relaxing process. Make sure there's no water remaining in their ears, then, finally, pop a hat on your tired but happy little one, who'll hopefully be snuggling down for a good sleep as you prepare to leave the pool.

Swimming with your baby is a great way to play and is fantastic for strengthening the bond between the two of you. It will also introduce them to a lifelong love of staying healthy and fit, whilst having a great time too! What could be better?

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

OFFWELL

MEMBERS of Offwell WI met in the social club for their January meeting where they enjoyed a quiz and beetle drive.

Discussions included preparations for the county quiz in February and the 2013 performance which includes demonstrations, talks and outings.

Voting on the resolutions took place with the winner, to go forward to county, being in favour of supporting our local high street shops. The second resolution, resolving to keep young people suicide-safe online, was also thought to be extremely worthwhile, showing that the WI voice is important in many aspects of the modern world.

Refreshments were prepared and served by Vanessa, with Melanie the winner of the draw and Thelma's rose winning flower of the month.

The next meeting is on February 7th and the speaker will be Pauline Field, whose subject is "The Entertainer".

New members are welcome to come along and join this friendly group of ladies.

MUSBURY AND WHITFORD

THE January meeting of Musbury and Whitford WI was held in Whitford Village Hall on Tuesday, January 8th.

Apologies were taken and birthday posies given out.

On a very wet and foggy night, the meeting was particularly well attended, with two new members welcomed.

We then had the speaker, Angela White, on Chinese Festivals, of which there are many. Members agreed this was a "very fascinating subject" and an excellent speaker who had lived in Hong Kong for 14 years.

The vote of thanks was given by Valerie Nicholls. There was then a break before official business.

There were several thank you cards from visitors for the group's excellent Christmas party. There are two teams for the county quiz next month.

Votes were taken for the 2013 Resolution, most were in favour of "Helping the Hight Street".

Invitations were read out and an idea of having group outings to help with filling coaches was put forward.

Members were reminded that in October 2013 it was their turn to host the group meetings.

The treasurer thanked everyone for their Smartie Tubes for charity and also for their subs.

the next meeting is members' night on Tuesday, February 12th at 7pm in Whitford Village Hall.

As usual, all are welcome.

Starting the season with a look at Shute's history

THOUGH its beginnings were in the 13th century and much of its grand mansion was abandoned in the late 18th century, the remains of old Shute are still showing its secrets to those who want to see in the 21st century.

So explained distinguished archaeologist Dr Stuart Blaylock as he opened the 2013 season of the Devonshire Association's Axe Valley Branch with a richly illustrated talk on "Recent Discoveries at Shute Barton".

A full house at Colyton's Peace Memorial Pavilion heard Dr Blaylock tell that an unwritten rule of archaeology "is that you rarely find what you expect to find and you nearly always find something else".

In recent years the present owners at Shute, the National Trust, have commissioned him and colleagues to survey the mansion remains and the adjacent farm buildings which now occupy what was the main entrance.

Looking, for instance, at what was thought to be a telling boundary wall he found himself investigating the stone-blocked entrance to an underground passage that might have been used for kitchen deliveries or maybe something more sinister.

He began with the 13th century Bonville family of Southleigh who started the growing estate.

After a century of Grey ownership the Carew-Poles of Colyton took on the estate from 1587 and retained a presence until its remains were handed to the National Trust in 1959.

With maps and prints, ancient and modern, Dr Blaylock was able to point the truth that the scale of the estate in its heyday was a match with any other of its kind in Devon, smaller only than Dartington.

The magnificent Elizabethan gateway still stands today, a sight that greets every passing traveller driving or walking through the village.

The drive through the gate leads to the new and elegant second Shute House built by the employees of Sir John William de la Pole in 1787.

It is thought that material from the crumbling old house may have been used. It became famous in the 1940s when the platforms at nearby Seaton Junction advertised "Alight Here for Dr Bridie's Academy for Girls" - allowed by the authorities when station names were removed in case they helped German invaders.

At the end of the century, after the private school closed, the house was in danger of becoming infamous when Jimmy Savile considered buying it. Without pressing his negative feelings on the subject, Dr Blaylock said that the present generation of civil servants and other authorities mostly ruled against excavation when ground became available in and around historic sites.

This meant no digging at Shute for the foreseeable future. But, he insisted, there is still a lot of investigation to be done simply by looking through concentrated and experienced eyes.

Bird enthusiast speaks on RSPB at Axminster Probus Club

THE speaker at the January meeting of Axminster Probus Club was Donald Cotton, a local resident and long-time member of the Exeter and South Dorset groups of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds.

For 13 years, Donald has organised bird spotting trips on the Seaton Tramway and has spent much time on the RSPB's local reserves such as Radipole at Weymouth, Bowling Green at Topsham, Aylesbeare Common and the Somerset Levels.

He also mentioned the Avocet cruises on the River Exe from Topsham which can be enjoyed even at this time of the year.

He provided details of the RSPB Garden Bird Watch which takes place this year on the weekend of January 26th and 27th.

In 2012, 600,000 bird watchers returned forms recording the numbers of each species they had spotted over an hour, enabling the charity to compile a list of the nation's most popular garden birds, slides of which Donald was able to show to an appreciative audience.

A similar response is expected this year and forms will be available in many national newspapers.

Axminster Probus Club, for retired and semi-retired business and professional men, will next meet at the Kilmington Cafe, Bistro & Motel on the A35 Gammons Hill on Tuesday, February 5th.

With NIGEL SPELLER

The New Year begins with news of the impending retirement of the Bishop of Exeter – Michael Langrish – after 13 years in the appointment.

Normal events will continue until the end of April and on Saturday, June 29th there will be a farewell service in the Cathedral for the Diocese, and next day the Bishop will make his farewell to the Cathedral Community. Other details later.

Our church buildings, especially Cathedrals, require continual attention to their fabric. Exeter has been granted £30,000 by central church funds for restoration of the organ, and a further sum is on offer for conservation of artworks and historic furnishings.

A recent study of varying religions by the Henry Jackson Society found that the Muslim Council of Britain was more prominent in debate than the CoFE, and the RC Church was more active over religious issues, while the Anglican Church focussed on overseas aid and foreign policy matters. But across all faiths in Britain religious statements are now more assertive.

The Scouting movement in the UK has commenced a review of pledging allegiance to God and the Queen. Special versions of the oath already exist for certain faiths, such as Hindus. The aim is to increase diversity to help more young and adults join the movement.

The Church of England House of Bishops has announced the end of its moratorium on gay clergy becoming bishops – but only if they agree to remain celibate. This decision was taken by the House of Bishops which considers changes to church doctrine, although major shifts of policy, such as women bishops, are taken by the Church's General Synod.

Church of England fees for weddings and funerals in churches have been increased from January 1st by about 40 per cent but include many items previously added as "extras." Priests can still decide to waive fees on grounds of "genuine financial hardship."

Pastor Darrell Holmes from Kilminster writes that last Sunday, the Baptist Church marked Plough Sunday. Traditionally a time of year when farmers started ploughing the fields ready for planting, and church services reflect on the act that starts the planting cycle.

Though local farmers today are not likely to be ploughing just now, we still remember them as they have faced flooded fields, poor harvests and animal diseases which have threatened their livelihoods. When they plant crops or buy livestock it is an act of faith on their part, and as a rural church we stand with them and pray for them at this time.

COLYTON shopkeeper Tony Hibberd originally came from Reading in Berkshire. He has been married to wife Sylvia for 35 and a half years and they have two sons – Mark, 35, and Jonathan, 31.

Tony served the community of Colyton as postmaster for 20 years until retiring in June 2011.

Beach won't meet EU standard if dog mess problem not solved

■ REGARDING Mr Grindrods letter of January 1st, he's absolutely right about our beach being filthy – a massive doggy loo.

If owners were made to keep dogs on leads, as they do on the West Walk, it would help. Why they have that concession I don't know.

Families have two or three dogs these day and they can't watch all of them, all the time. They're just let out of their cars and off they go. They only clean up the mess if someone is around to see them.

In two years' time the EU is going to test our beaches and water quality to see if they meet their standards. If not, signs will be on our beaches telling people to keep off. So things will have to alter.

In the past, Seaton has had a blue flag and a gold flag. People were so proud of our little holiday town so come on, let's try again.

*M. Bowers,
Seaton*

Why all the changes to Christian radio and TV?

■ I ALWAYS find your "News From the Churches" of interest and thank you for publishing it when so often Christian news is kicked into touch.

An example of this is the retiming of BBC Radio 2 Sunday Half Hour from 8.30pm to 6am – a ridiculously early time.

It is all very well to say we can listen "anytime" on BBC iPlayer but what of those who don't have this facility. My friends and I would much rather have Sunday Half Hour at 8.30pm (which I've listened to for over half a century) than Sunday Hour from 6am to 7am.

If you feel like me, do write to: The Producer, Sunday Half Hour, BBC media City, Salford, Manchester M60 1SJ or do object online.

Also, Songs of Praise no longer has a religious time – it is sometimes shunted to BBC 2 and a different times too. Why? Because the BBC think other programmes take priority (in their view), yet soaps generally remain at their usual times.

Those of us with impaired vision find it difficult to sort out the programmes rescheduled.

Seaton*

Plans to sell off probation service are 'most stupid and irresponsible'

■ ONE of the most stupid and irresponsible cuts must be the government's plans to sell off our probation service.

For almost a century this professional service in Devon and Cornwall has protected the public whilst reducing re-offending rates.

Mayor Juanita Phillips of Honiton Borough served on the first Probation Committee when the probation officer was Miss Tweed, and the service soon proved it could be more cost effective and humane than keeping lower risk offenders in prison. Now Mr Grayling, the first Lord Chancellor, totally unqualified for his role, wants to hand the probation service over to private companies and well meaning charities, neither of which will be properly accountable.

At the same time this stupid man plans to close local prisons at Shepton Mallet, Gloucester and the Isle of Wight, plus four others.

At a time when we have record prison numbers and overcrowded prisons is this not both grossly irresponsible for the treatment of offenders and putting the public at risk?

*Tony Simpson,
Honiton*

Starbucks are now the goodies... but what about the rest of us?

■ SO Starbucks has decided it will, after all, pay more tax, though not what it owes. They are now the goodies.

Regular taxpayers are not allowed this choice and must pay. Thousands of other people and companies have found a way to avoid paying their tax bills. The amount they owe would more than cover the extra cuts we all face.

A year ago Honiton British Legion was forced to close for a tax bill that would not have paid for paper tissues in Starbucks. Something is very wrong!

*Tony Simpson,
Honiton*

Farmhouse Breakfast Week

FARMHOUSE Breakfast Week is an annual celebration championing the importance of breakfast which aims to get the nation to Shake Up Their Wake Up! 47% of people regularly skip breakfast during the week so our aim is to encourage people to enjoy a healthy breakfast more regularly.

Managed by HGCA, the campaign started in 2000 and takes place every January. It is more successful each year with over 1,000 events and promotions taking place in 2012 alongside extensive media coverage.

Farmhouse Breakfast Week is run on behalf of arable farmers who grow crops such as wheat, barley, oats and oilseed rape. The purpose of the campaign is to raise awareness of the benefits of eating a healthy breakfast and demonstrate the wealth of wonderful breakfast produce available around the country.

All stages of the food chain, from farmers to food producers and retailers to consumers are encouraged to get involved and hold events to promote the importance of starting the day with breakfast. Activities include tasting sessions, breakfast competitions, cookery demonstrations, special breakfast menus and school breakfast clubs to name just a few.

Make moving home less stressful for your dog

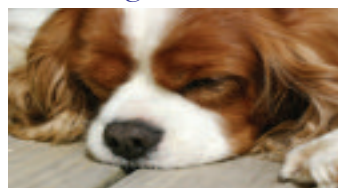

You know moving house it is going to be stressful for everyone involved including your dog. There will be so much disruption, imagine what it is like for your much loved pet, their normal routine has gone as everyone is busy doing different things. The whole world your dog has become familiar with, such as smells and household objects has changed dramatically and you should be aware that your dog could become stressed.

Why not consider placing your dog in our caring boarding kennels for the duration of your move. We will ensure your pet is kept safe, therefore minimising the affect on their stress levels whilst you and the rest of the family deal with the move. After the move to your new home when everything is unpacked and a semblance of normality has been restored you can collect your dog. It is important that you then give them the required time and attention needed for them to settle into their new environment. ## BUTTERFLY BLISS

MY name is Victoria Bell. For the last 22 years, I have worked in general nursing and Dentistry, as a qualified Registered Dental nurse. My nursing career has been varied, having worked in hospital, residential homes and in the community, all of which have been most rewarding. I have also worked voluntarily as a complementary therapist for Hospiscare.

During the latter years, I began to recognise through personal experience that complementary therapies could lay a vital role in helping people to recover and maintain their health. I work part time as a dental nurse in Ottery St Mary Dental Practice and work alternate Friday and Saturdays from 10 am until 4pm at Luxury Foot Therapy at 3 Prospect Place, Ottery St

Mary. The complementary therapies are given in a relaxing and comfortable holistic therapy room in the salon, offering Reflexology and Indian Head massage and Full body holistic massage.

Treatments are available by appointment. You can contact reception in the salon at Luxury Foot Therapy in person or telephone the salon or contact me directly by mobile or email.

A CTHA member and fully insured with Holistic Insurers/registered with Embody I studied at The Exeter School of Complementary Health where I gained my ITEC diplomas in REFLEXOLOGY (credits) ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY (Credits) INDIAN HEAD MASSAGE (CREDITS) & FULL BODY HOLISTIC MASSAGE (accredited Carlton Ins)

On appointments A full medical & lifestyle assessment is discussed, so please allow an extra 10 minutes on your first appointment. Some treatments may need a GP note if you have any medical conditions.

Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.*

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

DOVELEIGH CARE LTD

DOVELEIGH Care Ltd own and run two care homes in the Colyton/Seaton area.

Dove Court is a beautiful care home set high up on the hillside above Seaton with stunning views looking over the Axe valley towards Axmouth and out over Lyme Bay. Doveridge is located in Colyton adjacent to the Medical Practice and is homely, warm and welcoming with a friendly and caring atmosphere. Doveridge specialises in providing dementia care and was recently awarded "Best Small Care Home in the South West" by bestcarehome.co.uk.

The staff at both homes are caring and compassionate and prepared to go that little bit further when required. The aim of the staff is not just to support the residents with their basic physical needs but to also provide fun and friendship with the social calendar becoming more important and varied as time goes by.

Moving into a care home can often be seen as the beginning of the end, whereas we like to see it as a new beginning. Gone for our residents are the mundane daily chores of cooking and cleaning. Gone are the lonely days where you are isolated and alone. At both Dove Court and Doveridge our residents can use their energy enjoying the freshly prepared meals with no need to do the washing up at the end! Our residents can enjoy going out and about in our very own 'Dove Bus' with no need to worry about driving or parking. Recent trips in the Dove Bus have included trips to Otter Nurseries, Colyton Pantomime, Connaught Gardens in Sidmouth, St Gregory's Church and the Memory Café amongst others. Our residents can enjoy entertaining their own guests with refreshments being provided by staff so all the resident has to do is sit back and enjoy their visitors' company.

There is a varied social calendar of activities that happen within the home including visiting retailers and musicians. We employ our own qualified Creative Activities Therapist who is always open to further suggestions. Activities can be for individuals or for groups and involvement in activities is the choice of the resident. Residents are also encouraged to use our computer to Skype and email friends and families.

Our residents' individual wishes and desires are always of the utmost importance.

Both homes are regulated and inspected by the Care Quality Commission (CQC) and are fully compliant with all requirements and regulations. Their latest reports on both homes can be found at www.cqc.org.uk and are recommended reading.

The Pied Piper on stage this week

Axminster Drama Club's panto begins this Thursday

THIS week sees Axminster Drama Club's panto The Pied Piper of Hamelin take place at the Guildhall Axminster with shows on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening and Saturday afternoon.

The show features many new faces as well as a number of familiar ones and a large troupe of 30 children, 30 playing the parts of rats and village children.

As always the set and costumes are truly amazing and this looks like being a very colourful and enjoyable show.

The club will throughout the production be supporting the Axminster Canned Sunshine Project so when you come to a performance please bring any unwanted tinned or packaged food.

Tickets are on sale at Archway Bookshop in Church Street Axminster (telephone 01297 33595) priced at only £8 (£6.50 for under 16's and over 65's) or can be purchased on the door at £10.00 (£7.50 for under 16s and over 65s).

Membury MerryMakers will go the ball!

MEMBURY MerryMakers are producing Cinderella from January 24th to 26th at Membury Village Hall.

The truly dreadful Ugly Sisters and wicked stepmother are vanquished by handsome Prince Harry's true love, with a little help from Cinderella's Fairy Godmother, and a Palace Ball organised by Dan and Dino.

Tickets at £6 for adults and £3 for children in the evening and £5 for adults and £2 for children at the Saturday matinee, are available from Membury Post Office or on 01404 881587.

Singers wanted for oratorio

ANDY Hague, who directs local Rock Choir Sweet Honi 'n' Soul, has written an Oratorio called 'Christ Crucified' and is looking for singers to help him stage it Easter 2014. Andy says, 'I know that next Easter is a long time away, but in reality large scale productions take a lot of preparation and in this case there is around ninety minutes of music to learn, soloists to audition, orchestral musicians to be found and technical elements to be organised.'

Andy often describes this piece as a Rock Oratorio; however in reality there is a wide range of stylistic influences from South American folk music, through rock and stage musical to romantic classical. 'I wrote it at a critical time in my life, just before a near fatal accident and I completed it whilst I was recovering, so for me this work marks a very personal resurrection.'

There will be monthly rehearsals on Wednesday evenings starting on the 30th of January. The eventual perform-ment will take place in the 300-seat auditorium of Honiton's new Beehive centre, the construction of which starts this month. It will almost certainly be the first major community performance in that venue. Already there are singers from a number of local choirs signed up. As Andy explains 'I decided on a long run up of monthly rehearsals, because I know that local musicians and singers will already probably be committed to various ensembles and I wanted to create a manageable project.'

To be in this work you don't have to be an experienced singer, you just need to have the desire to participate in a work which has a message of hope for our present depressed times and troubled world. And this is essentially the Easter message; that when times are darkest, joy is just over the horizon.

Andy can be contacted on 01297 552436 or hague161@btinternet.com. You can find out more at www.christ-crucified.co.uk

Budapest Café Orchestra return to the Marine Theatre

AFTER their hit performance at the Marine Theatre last year, The Budapest Café Orchestra return to Lyme Regis to take away your January blues.

The Budapest Café Orchestra delivers the richness and dynamism of Balkan music in all its untameable glory. Featuring a wide-ranging programme of impassioned

Hungarian Czardas, tender Russian folk melodies, rollicking dances from Romania and Moldavia, bittersweet Jewish laments, as well as their own electrifying compositions, the music evokes vivid images of Tzigané fiddle maestros, Budapest café life and gypsy campfires - good enough to make you want to book a holiday along the Danube!

The Budapest Café Orchestra are at The Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, January 24th. Doors open 7.45pm with the band onstage at 8.30pm. Tickets cost £13 or £11 concessions, and are available online at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling the box office on 01297 332138.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Eden Garden Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction & Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design & Build unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service.

Installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete landscaping service including Lawns Horticulture and Aquatics, either as a package or in affordable stages.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is fencing where this can either be repaired or replaced, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either post and panel, close board, post and rail or picket fencing and Eden also supply and fit gates (see insets). In fact "cost leadership" is at the forefront of the business whilst keeping quality and the principles of design paramount.

Business founder, designer and artisan craftsman Norman Brown holds an MSc. in Environmental Planning & Management and has contributed to books, periodicals and the gardening press. ## Seat Alhambra wins What Car? best MPV award for third consecutive year

- The SEAT Alhambra retains its What Car? Best MPV award at the What Car? Car of the Year 2013 awards
- Alhambra becomes What Car? Best MPV three years in a row
- Alhambra 2.0 TDI 140 Ecomotive S version takes the crown
- Best MPV award becomes twelfth UK gong for the Alhambra
- New range-topping 2.0 TDI 177 PS engine on sale now

ESTEEMED motoring consumer publication What Car? has crowned the SEAT Alhambra its best MPV for the third year running, lauding it as a "fantastic all-round package".

At a glitzy ceremony at London's Grosvenor House Hotel, the amazingly practical MPV once again saw off the competition to become the people carrier that What Car? recommends most highly.

It is the 2.0 TDI CR 140 Ecomotive S model specifically that takes the prize, which is priced at £25,035 RRP OTR and boasts CO2 emissions of just 146 g/km with fuel consumption of 50.4 mpg combined.

What Car? Editor-in-chief Chas Hallett explained exactly why the Alhambra took first place, calling it "a fantastic all-round package, roomy enough for seven adults, good value for money, powerful and economical to run".

The Alhambra does indeed offer fantastic value for money. Priced from just £23,770 for a 1.4 TSI 150 PS in S specification, it seats seven adults in spacious comfort and features standard equipment including 16-inch alloy wheels, three-zone climate control, Bluetooth audio streaming, sliding rear doors, ISOFIX mountings for all five rear seats, and a Start/Stop System with Energy Recovery to save fuel.

SE specification adds 17-inch alloy wheels, leather steering wheel and gear knob covers, dark tinted rear windows, automatic lights and wipers, and cruise control, among a host of additional comfort and convenience features.

SE Lux specification is, as the name suggests, a luxurious package of equipment that includes leather upholstery, power operated tailgate and rear doors, a panoramic sunroof, heated front seats, and SEAT Media System 2.2 – a touch screen infotainment unit incorporating satellite navigation, DAB digital radio and a rear view camera.

Power stretches from 150 PS up to 177 PS, with the previous range-topping 170 PS 2.0 TDI unit now replaced by a 177 PS engine of the same capacity. It is available to order now with SE and SE Lux trim variants, and with DSG automatic as an option.

SEAT UK Managing Director Peter Wyhinny said: "With the quality of the competition in the MPV sector, we certainly weren't complacent about winning a third What Car? Best MPV award in a row – but we were quietly confident, given how many awards the Alhambra has already won.

"That the Alhambra is still top of the pile is a testament to its outstanding qualities and appeal as an overall package. As the What Car? experts have again recognised, the Alhambra offers family buyers an irresistible mix of performance, practicality and price.

"This is the twelfth award that the Alhambra has picked up in the UK, following its Auto Express Best MPV prize in 2012. That's an amazing achievement – but hopefully this is not the last prize we'll put in the Alhambra's trophy cabinet."

Hyundai i10 1.2 classic a 'Best Buy' city car at What Car? awards

- Entry-level i10 awarded 'Best Buy' city car for cars under £9,000
- Hyundai's best-selling car continues winning ways

THE Hyundai i10 1.2 Classic has been chosen as a 'Best Buy' city car for cars under £9,000, reinforcing its credentials as one of the standout performers in the segment.

Chas Hallett, Editor-in-chief at What Car?, said: "Buyers at this end of the market want value for money above all else, and that's something that the Hyundai i10 provides in spades. Despite the bargain price, the i10 is actually one of the sweetest-driving city cars there is. It has an impressive balance of ride comfort and cornering ability, which makes it feel very grown-up compared with most rivals. The i10 is also impressively practical for a city car, with decent space for four adults, great access to the cabin and a reasonable boot that can be extended by folding the rear seats.

The Hyundai i10 was the manufacturer's best-selling model in 2012 with sales in excess of 23,000 units for the year – a 13.5% increase on 2011. Furthermore, it was the second-best-selling car in the A-segment behind the Fiat 500 yet still outselling other mainstream offerings like the Ford Ka and VW Up.

Tony Whitehorn, President and CEO, Hyundai Motor UK, said: "We are delighted that the i10 has been recognised by What Car? in what is an extremely competitive market segment. The i10 is a hugely important car for us and continues the sell well on the strength of its value, ride comfort and the way it is built for purpose."

A useful start in Life

HAVING a full driving licence is so important for so many reasons, rest assured I teach to a very high standard. I teach safety for life, lessons can be fun and very cost effective.

Quality not Quantity, I have personally developed and perfected over the past years a very unique teaching aid that helps to take away the conscious effort of vehicle control. It helps to coordinate hand, feet and eyes, which means I can teach vehicle control in a much shorter time. Then the real art of thinking outside the car begins. So why not have an as-essment lesson as soon as possible, you might surprise yourself. I also specialise in intensive courses!

ROUND-UP SOUTH-WEST PENINSULA LEAGUE (Division One East)

ONLY two games survived. Leaders Newton Abbot Spurs were held to a 4-4 draw by visiting Totnes & Dartington.

This allowed unbeaten title favourites Exmouth Town to ease into top spot after their 5-1 thumping of Alphington.

FRESH DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

LAPFORD football club have never won a trophy of any sort in their long history, but on a day when most teams in the Fresha Devon & Exeter League were kicking their heels because of the bad weather, Lapford were smiling.

The mid-Devon side languishing third from bottom of Division Five, came from behind twice to sink third from top COUNTESS WEAR DYNAMOES 3-2.

Goals from Martin Leach and Ed Quick twice tied the game and then Lapford won it with an 85th minute penalty from Harry Leach. The Dynamo scorers were Aaron Libretto with a penalty and Damian Densham.

Meanwhile, reigning Premier champions ST MARTINS dug deep to win 4-2 at BEER ALBION a week after they had been held by the Fishermen to a surprise 2-2 draw.

It looked to be heading that way again after Beer scored just after half-time to make it 2-2, but Saints Lee Parker who was sent off last week scored a superb third goal, and a Darren Bingham penalty finally decided the outcome.

First-half goals from Tom Beddow and Nathan Melton right on half-time earned Saints a 2-1 interval lead.

Beer's first-half scorer was Adam Wakley with Chris Long equalising, and Beer really had the Minster

Park team on the rack until they let in a third.

FENITON switched their match against BUDLEIGH SALTERTON RESERVES to their reserve team pitch, but after going a goal down and being denied an equaliser it looked as if it was not going to be their day.

However Paul Dowling and Ben Ede scored to tip the scales, and both players added second half goals as Feniton took charge and went 4-1 ahead.

Then Charlie Selley, Andrew Jones and Dave O'Connor all weighed in with a goal as Feniton went on to win 7-2.

Budleigh, who put together some attractive football, scored through Zak Pearce and Brett Gloyn, and did enough to suggest they may yet get away from the danger zone.

LYMPSTONE won the only game played in Division Three, 1-0 at home to bottom of the table SANDFORD. For most of the match the Lympts peppered the Sandford goal but the visiting keeper made save after save to deny the hosts whose only goal came from Andy Lowe.

WOODBURY won a thrilling local derby 6-4 against EXMOUTH TOWN RESERVES in Division Four after switching the match to the Royal Marine camp at Lymstone.

Woodbury were a goal down and a man down after Craig Leaman was red-carded, but kept in touch with first half goals from Richie Ralph and a Kevin Pitt penalty.

Exmouth turned over 3-2 ahead, but Woodburys Rich Hill then helped himself to a second half hat-trick with substitute Declan Bourne also scoring.

TIVERTON TOWN RESERVES won 1-0 against neighbours WITHERIDGE RESERVES in a swiftly arranged Division One midweek match.

The only goal came from Kieran Rapo but it was far from an easy win by the yellows who remain unbeaten.

CONTINUOUS RAIN IN EXETER & DISTRICT - SEVERE FLOODING

EXETER and the neighbourhood experienced a continuous and heavy downpour of rain on Saturday (11th Jan).

Sporting events fixed for the afternoon in the city were almost everywhere postponed.

First came the news that St James Park was practically under water, necessitating a postponement of the Exeter

City and Plymouth & District League XI match, much to the discomfort of the local soccer club, who lately have experienced several financial misfortunes.

Closely followed came the report that Exeter Harriers had put off their important sealed handicap event over the Matford course and were holding a road race instead.

The previous week they held a trail spin across country, and the Matford marshes were then more or less under water, while the pack had

Results: (Division One) Flamingos 53 Tip Top Trees 8, OPG 37 Uplowman 9.

IN their last fixture of 2012 just before Christmas Flamingos were drawn against Tip Top Trees, and as luck would have it the fixtures had them drawn against each other again for the first fixture of 2013.

Flamingos were looking to maintain their 100 per cent unbeaten record, while 3Ts aims were more modest – their first point of the season.

As it transpired it was Flamingos who left the happiest with their unbeaten run secure, whilst the Trees were still searching for that elusive first point.

With Karen Hall in fine form at GS, Flamingos were 17-4 ahead at quarter time, and 31-4 up at half way. Although 3Ts worked hard, especially Abi Webber at GD, they could not stem the Flamingos tide, with 3Ts finishing on the wrong end of the 53-8 score line.

Second placed OPG were up against Uplowman who were in 3rd place, and needing a win to keep in touch with Flamingos.

At quarter time OPG were 10-2 in front and by half way were 19-2 ahead. With Tracey Moran in great form OPG controlled the game and going into the final session were 30-7 up.

Although Viv Grant was playing well the Uplowman side were no match for OPG on the night and OPG finished victors by 37-9.

Results: (Division Two) Otter Valley Dairy 23 Water Babies 9, Howden Hawks 19 Sidmouth Toucans 33, Hi Q 37 JD Tyres 17.

LEADERS Hi Q were looking for their 10th straight win when they came up against a JD Tyres side who have been having a good season.

The first quarter saw Hi Q gain a 10-5 lead before moving 22-7 ahead by half way, thanks to great play from Bev Parris.

The third quarter was even, going goal-for-goal, with Jenny Bryant doing well for JD. At the start of the final period JD looked to be in with a chance of a point as they trailed by 29-14.

But the final quarter belonged to Hi Q as they outscored the Tyres to finish victors by 37-17 to retain their unbeaten run.

Sidmouth Toucans were hoping to keep up the pressure on 3rd placed JD when they met Howden Hawks.

Hawks started well to lead 8-7, but by half way Toucans were 15-12 in front. With Helen Terry playing well at GA Sidmouth increased their lead to 23-15 going in to the final quarter. They continued to dominate, despite good play from Jill Partiss for the Hawks and finished the night winners by 33-19.

Final match saw new teams Otter Valley Dairy and the Water Babies meeting again with the Babes looking for their first point. OVD quickly moved into the lead, 8-1 at quarter time and 12-3 by half time.

With Roseanne Dyer looking strong at GA they didn't look back finishing the night with a 23-9 win despite good play from Amber Doughty for Water Babies.

SENIOR CLUB

THE Christmas Stableford, rained off in December, went ahead last Friday with around 40 Seniors taking part in good golfing conditions.

The field was split into two sections and in the top division, handicaps up to and including 19, there was one fantastic round with a score of 45 points by John Mant (18).

In second place with 38 points came Peter Knighting (15) and third a point behind in third place was Chris Walker (13).

In Division two, the winner with 37 points was Leighton Morgan (24).

Terry Jessup (20) claimed second spot with 34 points, and third was Neil Moorcraft (21) with 33 points.

On Monday the seventh round of the Seniors' Winter League Programme took place and, in continued good golfing conditions, some excellent scores were recorded.

Again no team is edging too far ahead although Monday's winners, Rob Heard & Hugh Willis with 36 points are not relaxing their grip.

Hard on their heels are Chris

Walker & Nick Povey who scored 35 points, while two teams netted 34 points, Sid Pember & Neil Moorcraft and Alan Vincent & Charles Whitbourn.

The only 2 of the day was scored by Alan Vincent

LADIES

UNDER a blue sky, just for a change, the Ladies of Axe Cliff competed for an 18-hole Par competition.

The winning lady was Vice-Captain Glenda Board with a very respectable minus two.

Second place went to Lesley Crawford, beating Pauline Willis on count back.

SUN AM WINTER LEAGUE

WE finally seem to have had a full week's programme of games starting with the 4th round of the Sun Am Winter League.

There were no real surprises in the matches but competitors were just relieved to be out playing again in half decent weather.

The real surprises came in the clubhouse afterwards where members learned for the first time of their unexpected successes in the pre-Christmas draw! We've been a long time away.

TUESDAY MIXED

TWENTY SIX members played in this week's Mixed Competition - but due to adverse weather conditions with not all of the pairings being able to complete the course - not even 14 holes - the competition became a 9-hole event.

The winners with 18pts on c/b were Carole and Alan Booth. In second place losing out on c/b also 18pts were Celia Hamlett and Paul Witton.

In 3rd place with 17pts again on c/b were Sue Ritchie and Max Pipe.

LADIES SECTION

JUST four clubs and a putter were needed in this week's Greensome competition and, with the going heavy, it was an advantage to be able to hit a country mile.

With 3/8ths combined handicap to count, Henrietta Bradshaw and Tricia Swindell proved up to the challenge and came 1st in the 18-hole competition with a score of 32 Stableford points.

Not far behind, and in 2nd place, were Sue Ritchie and Ann Trayling on 30 points.

Third place went to Jackie Seager and Jane Watts with 25 points, and Anne Davies and Elizabeth Davies scraped into 4th place on c/b with 21 points.

In the 10-hole competition Jeanne Mackinnon and Barbara Mullett were 1st with 14 points, with Linda McLaughlin and Carole Booth in 2nd with 12 points.

SENIORS SECTION

SIXTY two seniors started out on their first medal round of the year on a bright, frosty morning full of hope but as usual the course gave little away and only four players beat par.

Andy Sharland won division one with a 66. John Fleetwood came second with 68 and Malcolm Matthews, John Lamb and Dave Maggs took the other prizes.

In division two Phil Faulkner scored a net 64 to win.

But the best score of the day cost him: he was shown a red card and will play the rest of the winter season with his handicap cut by two shots.

Peter Dart was the runner-up with a 66, followed by Ron Cooper, Bill Eaton and David Price.

Additional Tae Kwon-Do classes

WITH a view to encourage more adults to take up the martial art the Axminster class of Target TAGB Tae Kwon-Do will have a separate additional class for adults from Tuesday, February 5th.

Instructor Mr Gerry Waugh explained that the proportion of adults to children varies between his schools (he also teaches at Charmouth and Sidmouth) but, at Axminster, the class currently has very few adults.

Mr Waugh said: "On a few occasions, adults have come along to my Axminster class for a trial, seen a class of mostly children and been put off or embarrassed to train alongside youngsters with more experience."

"From my observation, this is not a problem the other way round - kids happily train alongside teenagers and adults, but adults can often be more self-conscious, at least at first."

Explaining why he is maintaining family classes in addition to the new adult class he said: "Kids generally train well in a mixed group and several of the adults currently training with us are parents of other students."

"We are very happy to encourage families to train together, with a generous family discount offered to enable this."

"This is therefore an additional class to attract a new group of students, rather than a replacement of existing classes, which will continue to be family oriented."

Anyone interested in trying out, for free, the new adult class is welcome to come along to Axe Valley Leisure Centre on Tuesday, February 5TH at 8.30pm.

For more details, call Mr Waugh on 01297 639830 or check out www.TargetTAGB.co.uk

Sidmouth Round-up & Preview

SIDMOUTH were left disappointed on Saturday to find out their home game against top of the table North Petherton was postponed.

The Chiefs were looking to get their first win of the new year after last week's shock defeat to bottom of the table North Dorset.

Sidmouth, who lie 9th in the league table, would have been in for a tough afternoon against a Petherton side who have only lost twice in 15 games.

The Chiefs will hope for better this weekend when they visit Bridgewater & Albion.

The reverse fixture saw Sidmouth win convincingly 45-25, but they will have to raise their game as it has showed that there is no easy game in this league.

Sidmouth Seconds Round-up & Preview

SIDMOUTH Seconds also had their game postponed due to the adverse weather conditions on Saturday.

Sidmouth were due to play league leaders Brixham Seconds. Brixham lead the way by 12 points at the top of the Devon Senior Merit Table, it would have been a huge ask for Sidmouth if they were going to get anything from the game.

Sidmouth gear up for the visit of Tiverton Seconds this weekend in a bottom of the table clash.

Tiverton are six points clear of Sidmouth in 10th position, and this will also be the first time these sides have met this season.

Honiton Round-up & Preview

HONITON have continued their bad run of form into the New Year with a 15-10 defeat at the hands of Truro. Honiton face second placed Bideford this weekend in the search for confidence and points but it will be a huge ask against the title contenders. In the reverse fixture back in September, Bideford showed their class with a 32-11 victory.

Honiton Seconds Round-up & Preview

HONITON Seconds were due to play Crediton Seconds last weekend but the adverse weather conditions made the pitch unplayable.

The reverse of this fixture back at the very start of the season in October, saw Crediton claim a massive 47-0 win over Honiton.

Honiton made a good start to 2013 with a convincing win over Exeter Saracens Seconds.

They will look to carry on that momentum into this weekend when they welcome the visit of Bideford Seconds who are second in the league. The reverse fixture back in September saw Bideford ease to a 67-10 victory.

cricket axminster

AFTER last year's wet and wild summer, everyone at Axminster Cricket Club, and indeed other local clubs will be hoping 2013 will be dryer and a little more successful.

The 2012 season was a disappointment for few Axminster's 1st XI who were relegated into the Francis Devon League C division, however, this remains one of the highest standards locally.

This coming season the team intend to unite and attempt to rebuild confidence.

Axminster 2nd XI had a much better year finishing 3rd in their division. Had one or two close games swung the other way then promotion could have been a possibility.

A lot of youngsters really stepped up to the plate for both teams this past season, 2013 will see these colts more experienced, stronger and passionate to test their skills further.

There have been a few exciting changes to the club for the new season. Pending a vote at the AGM, this year will see league cricket become win or lose, as opposed to the rather dated set-up of winning/losing draws. Rules will change to keep up with International and Domestic One day cricket, for example front foot 'no balls' will result in a 'free hit' and teams will have to take fielding and batting power plays!

This will all lead to more exciting matches and a new competitive edge, requiring tactical changes and cunning.

A few changes to captains have taken place, with Tristan Wakeley taking the reigns of the 1st team.

Wakeley has played for the club for a many seasons so is perfectly placed to help steer the team back to winning ways and is keen for this year to be very different both in playing and club standards.

The 2nd team have the experienced Mark Enticott to lead them with Shaun Perry his vice, a switch around from 2012. Everyone at the club expects them to be highly competitive and look to gain promotion.

Pre-season/winter nets start on Thursday,17th January 17th at Axminster Sports hall.

Sessions will run every Thursday for 10 weeks, starting at 8.30pm until 10pm. Anyone is welcome to attend the sessions whether you are a member or not.

New captain Wakeley said: "We welcome members of other clubs or people new to the game to create variation before the friendlies start in April.

Axminster sets a very high standard in colt cricket thanks in part to head coach Daniel Murnane, who has recently qualified to ECB Level 3.

Colts training nights start at Axminster Sports hall on Sunday 13th January. Sessions run from 6-8pm, and if you think your child would be interested contact Daniel on 07845498057 or email at

"If you require any further information, or want to know what is happening with the club then you can search on Google or visit www.axminstertowncricketclub.co.uk.

"Alternatively you can search on Facebook (Axminster Town Cricket Club). The pages are constantly updated with new information and contact details.

"We look forward to hearing from you and excitedly anticipate the coming season."

First home Henry solves the Riddle

TWO Honiton runners braved the cold to take part in the Dawlish Coasters' 'Oh My Obelisk' last Sunday WRITES JUDY DAVEY.

Billed as a 10mile multi-terrain race, runners are taken on a undulating course up to Haldon Forest and the obelisk, and back down again, which ends up being closer to 11.5 miles in total!

Although cold, the weather was on-side with beautiful sunshine throughout. The course was muddy in places but it all added to the fun.

First back for Honiton was Clare Melbourne, in 2 hours 2 minutes, and second was Juliet Hall in 2.17.

This was a great result for Juliet's first off-road race and both runners thoroughly enjoyed it!

The only disappointment of the day was that neither runner actually saw the obelisk, leading them to believe that it may be just a myth created to entice runners up the steep climb to the summit!

On the same day, several Honiton runners took part in the much closer Axmouth Challenge where runners could choose from a variety of route lengths. The main race was 9.4 miles and mainly on road.

The route differed slightly to previous years but there were still plenty of hills and, this year, very slippery mud in places. Steve Davey was first back for Honiton in 21st place in 1 hour 13 minutes and 23 seconds.

Howard Bidmead was next back in 35th place in 1:18:44. Rod Inglis finished just one place and 11 seconds later having had a great run.

Ceri Oak had an amazing race as she has not raced for well over a year due to injury but she stormed round coming 38th in 1:19:31 showing she is truly back on form.

Mark Andow had to get off to a very hurried start as he thought the race started 30 minutes after it did. He finished 49th in 1:21:47.

Mark had overtaken Judy Davey on a particularly slippery field near the finish and he managed to maintain this position with Judy finishing just one place later in 1:21:52.

Mark Dallyn was wearing his Honiton vest for the first time. He was out

THE Ladies continued their impressive form in the Devon County Foxlands League with an excellent 84-71 victory over Budleigh.

The home rink of Brenda Edwards, Daphne Ryan, Lilian Lovatt, and Margaret Crompton won well (32-12) and the away rink of Phil White, Barbara Mowatt, Jean Kesterton, and Marion Harris were also victorious (18-14). Needless to say Ladies' Captain Jean Kesterton praised her team's all-round effort.

The men won a hard-fought home friendly against Sidmouth men 58-49 with narrow victories on all rinks – John Hill, Mike Knight, Neil Solomon, and Bob Sherborne (15-11), Stephen Apsey, Phil Stephens, Brian Parsons, and Paul Moffitt (26-22), and David Harris, George Mabon, Gerald Knott, and Norman Denslow (17-16).

In the mixed friendlies we lost by just three shots at home to the Nomads (49-52) with a win for Margaret Brown, Diana Courtenay-Smith, Marion Harris, and Eric Skeemer (15-13) before going on to beat Bridport 70-33 with wins on all rinks – Tony Payne, Pauline Knight, Jean Kesterton, and Neil Solomon (23-6), Lilian Lovatt, John Hill, David Harris, and Margaret Crompton (27-13), and William Cook, Diana Courtenay-Smith, Mike Knight, and Eric Skeemer (20-14).

The men lost their Devon Over 60s match against the very strong Exonia Club 52-103 with our best effort coming from the home rink of Howard Keep, Eric Skeemer, Doug Looskan, and Paul Moffitt who lost narrowly 14-20.

Feniton maintain pressure on leaders

ONCE again the local football leagues were left devastated by the all-to-familiar weekend deluge.

In the South-West Peninsula League both Axminster Town and Sidmouth Town were left frustrated as their scheduled matches with Appledore and Crediton United fell victim.

Sidmouth have no game on Saturday while the Tigers, still in fourth place, welcome third-placed Budleigh Salterton to Sector Lane.

It was a similar story in the Devon Intermediate (East) cup semi-final with Millwey Rise and Farway United's scheduled trips to Sampford Peverell and Otterton both washed-out. The teams will try again on Saturday.

In the Devon & Exeter League the situation, despite recent noises to the contrary must be approaching a worrying level.

Just five of the 61 scheduled fixtures were wiped out. These postponements added to those in recent weeks brings the total to 246 since December 1st!

In the games that did survive at the weekend both Feniton and St Martins closed the gap on Premier division leaders Hatherleigh Town with victories.

Feniton, still unbeaten, remain second after hitting seven for the fourth time this season. On the receiving end at Acland Park were Budleigh Salterton Reserves who managed two consolations. Paul Dowling (2), ben Ede (2), Charlie Selley, Andy Jones and Dave O'Connor scored for Fenity.

Over at Furzebrake goals from Adam Wakley and Chris Long, his third in five games, couldn't save Beer Albion as their three game unbeaten run came to an end with a 4-2 defeat at the hands of third placed St Martins.

The Fishermen head off to Thorverton at the weekend while Feniton visit Willand Rovers Reserves.

Seaton Town, still languishing in mid-table, return to action with a trip to fourth-placed Newtown.

The Seasideers are also gearing up for the loss of manager Josh Stunell. The highly-rated Stunell, who is also the D&E league select XI manager, has given the club notice that he will be leaving t the end of the season.

No games were played in division one. Sidbury United are scheduled to entertain Tipton St John on Saturday while Colyton, still, hunting that elusive first win, welcome Witheridge Reserves.

It was a similar story in division two. Colaton Raleigh will now look forward the visit by Pinhoe while there's an intriguing local derby at Mounbatten Park with Honiton laying in wait for Sidmouth Town Reserves.

There's another derby game in division three with Offwell Rangers playing host to Upottery. Meanwhile Ottery St Mary entertain Newton St Cyres.

In division four Axmouth United could go fourth with a win at Exmouth Town Reserves while the bottom two clash at Colyford Road with Seaton Town Reserves clashing with the Lords XI. Axminster Town Reserves have no fixture.

Beer Albion Reserves dropped into the bottom three in division five after Lapford's victory at Countess Wear.

Down in division six there's a top-of-the-table tangle with leaders Feniton Reserves welcoming Amory Argyle.

Record breaker caught in Lyme Bay

■ LOCAL angler Mike Hansell (pictured right) received a fantastic Christmas present when he was informed that a Baillons Wrasse he caught has been accepted as a new British record.

Mike, a member of Lyme Regis Sea Angling Club, caught the 235gram fish from Steve Sweet's charter boat Amaretto 3 on the 30th July 2011 on chocolate flavoured mussel. It has taken until now for the catch to be ratified by the British record committee.

This is not only a first for Mike but also the first British record for Lyme Regis Sea Angling club.

If you would like to join the club or have the chance to catch a British record fish from Amaretto 3 then contact Steve Sweet on 07836 591084 etto2.com).
